CONNECTICUT CONVENTION CENTER ATTENDS GLBT EXPO IN NYC

HARTFORD, CT (March 24, 2014) – The 21st Original GLBT Expo took place over the weekend at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in New York City. The two-day show featured the finest products and services available to the GLBT consumer.

In attendance was Julia Miller, Director of Catering for the Connecticut Convention Center, who took the time to showcase the Center as a premier venue for weddings, social events, corporate meetings, conventions and tradeshows. Along with her was Scott Ling, President of Demers Exposition Services Inc. - one of New England's leading exposition producers specializing in graphic and design production, corporate event services, theme décor, custom carpet and furniture rental, and much more. Demers is also the Center's in-house audio visual provider.
